General Orders No. 1, dated January 5, 1914, have issued from the office of the grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, of the District of Columbia, as follows:

1. In view of the extraordinary expense incurred by the constituent commanderies on account of their attendance at the triennial convocation at Denver, the R. He has, therefore, suspended the operation of the standing resolution of the Grand Commandery providing for a "Field Day" inspection.

Any suggestions from subordinate lodges relative to proposed amendments to either of the constitutions should be submitted to the committee without delay.

January 3, Canton Washington held a largely attended meeting, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The newly elected officers, Capt. W. P. Pumphrey, Lieut. Fred A. Royce, Ensign A. G. Noakes, Clerk Samuel E. Boyce, Accountant, Mrs. Seiffert, and the appointed officers were installed. The canton elected the following committee to have charge of the remaining assembly dances, as scheduled: Capt. W. P. Pumphrey, chairman; Lieut. Fred A. Royce, Past Capt. Charles D. Tribute to Memory of Past Grand Joseph Burroughs.

Last Tuesday evening Golden Rule Lodge, No. 2, held an interesting and an unusually well attended session. Past Grand Master Thomas J. Gates, assisted by past grands from Harmony Lodge, No. 3, installed the elective and appointed members who will serve during the term of six months. The spirit of the meeting was sadly tempered by the announcement of the death of Past Grand Joseph Burroughs, who for so many years held the office of secretary, and who for many years filled with honor the place of representative to the Grand Lodge. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect, and condolence to his family, and many members present spoke in a feeling manner of the loss the lodge had sustained and the many excellent qualities of the deceased brother. The lodge has a bright prospect for numerical increase during the coming year, as in addition to the excellent character of the lodge, it is reported that other applications will be presented, and that the indications are that the lodge will have degree work almost nightly from now until the summer months.

Grand Conductor I. R. Schwinger Official.

Last Tuesday evening the officers of Washington Lodge, No. 6, were installed by Grand Conductor I. R. Schwinger, assisted by past grands from Union Lodge, No. 11. There was a large number of not only the lodge members in attendance, but members from many other lodges. At the close of the installation ceremony, the present adjourned to the dining-room for refreshments.

Grand Marshal William J. Hope Installs at Eastern Lodge.

Last Wednesday evening the officers of Eastern Lodge, No. 7, and Harmony Lodge, No. 8, were jointly installed by Grand Marshal William J. Hope, assisted by past grands from Washington Lodge, No. 6. It is reported that the work of the installing officers was very near perfection. There was an unusually large attendance of the members of both lodges, and visiting members from other jurisdictions. It is the custom of these two lodges to hold joint installations, and on this occasion members of Harmony Lodge were the guests of Eastern, No. 7, and at the close of the installation exercises, the chairman of the entertainment committee, Past Grand Harry Anderson, from other members present to the dining-room, where a bounteous repast was served. Applications for admission to the order were received by both Eastern and Harmony lodges, and the indications are that both lodges will be kept busy almost weekly with degree work from now until warm weather. Harmony Lodge, No. 8, elected Past Grand August Kruse, degree master, and he is enthusiastically at work preparing for the work in sight and prospective.

Past Noble Grand V. Estelle Yorkley to Official.

Tomorrow evening the officers of Esther Rebekah Lodge, No. 5, will be installed by Past Noble Grand V. Estelle Yorkley, assisted by a corps of past noble grands from Naomi Rebekah Lodge, No. 1. Ruth Rebekah Lodge Holds Installation.

Last Monday evening the newly elected officers of Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, were installed by Past Noble Grand Estelle Harbin, assisted by a corps of past noble grands from Dorcas Rebekah Lodge, No. 4. There was an unusually large attendance of members from other lodges, as well as more than an average attendance of the lodge members. The incoming noble grand, Mrs. Eva M. Bushey, increased the number of lodge members, and she has the intention to introduce during her term of office many new plans for the increase of social and fraternal activity in the lodge. It is reported that the members present pledged themselves to procure new members during the next six months, and to render all aid necessary in reviving the once widely-known degree team, and to confer the work in the encampment of this lodge has been for years noted.

Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6, met in regular session last Wednesday evening, and in addition to the installation of the newly elected officers by the grand patriarch, John D. Yorkley, and present work of Grand Encampment officers, listened to several eulogies upon the death of Grand Scribe Joseph Burroughs, who was a member of this encampment for many years. One of the pleasant surprises of the evening was the installation of the scribe, Past Grand Patriarch Thomas W. Fowler, who was installed into that office in the encampment for the hundredth term of six months as Grand Encampment officer. In response to remarks by the grand patriarch, calling attention to that fact, Patriarch Fowler made a short address giving some of the history of the lodge, and holding said office in the encampment.

Naomi Rebekah Lodge Installs Officers.

Naomi Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, held its installation ceremonies on Monday night in Odd Fellows Hall. The installing officers were past noble grands of Dorcas Lodge, No. 4, and Dorcas Lodge, No. 4, assisted by a corps of past noble grands.
